Net Sales

[115.8% YoY]

Sales rose on an increase in sales due to new consolidation and robust demand for System and Products.

System:

Sales increased due to the expansion of demand for large-scale system integration of banks in the finance sector and the acquisition of new projects in the public sector, such as the unification of pension plans and the upgrading of systems in local governments, in addition to new consolidation.

Operations:

Sales remained flat given downsized projects at certain communication carrier customers associated with the completion of system migration, despite an expansion of scale at other existing customers.

Products and other:

Sales rose on special demand such as the upgrading of Windows OS.

Staffing service:

Sales declined with a reduction in staffing services operations and the promotion of self-manufacturing in the current fiscal year in product sales-related outsourcing operations, which had followed an upward trend.

[106.7% vs. initial plan]

Sales exceeded the initial plan due to an increase in demand for development projects in the finance sector and the public sector, etc.

Gross Profit

[119.6% YoY]

Gross profit increased mainly due to higher sales.

[122.5% vs. initial plan]

The gross margin exceeded the initial plan due to higher sales and smaller-than-expected losses from unprofitable projects.

Operating Income

[113.9% YoY]

Income rose due to the increase in gross profit, despite higher SG&A expenses due to new consolidation.

[255.7% vs. initial plan]

Income exceeded the initial plan due to the increase in gross profit, although a decline had been expected given an increase in newly-hired employees.
